QUEST. 9. Who have been expelled from the connection this year ?

Ans. None.

QUEST. 10. Who have withdrawn from the connection this year ?

Ans. None.

QUEST. 11. Are all the Preachers blameless in life and conversation ?

Ans. This was attended to by calling the names of the Preachers in open Conference.

QUEST. 12. Who have died this year?

ANS. 1. REV. THOMAS D. BOYLES, who was born in Randolph County, West Virginia, August 30th, 1817, and died in Unionville, Appanoose County, Iowa, December 16th, 1867.

He was converted in Barbour County, West Virginia, in 1839, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church the same year.

He was licensed a Local Preacher on Barbour Circuit, Western Virginia Conference, March 8th, 1848; traveled Kingwood Circuit, Western Virginia Conference, 1851, under the Presiding Elder; was ordained a Local Deacon at Morgantown, Virginia, June 30th, 1852, by Bishop Simpson, and the same year emigrated to Iowa; in 1853, was admitted on trial in the Iowa Annual Conference at Keokuk, Iowa. He graduated to full membership in 1858, at Fairfield, Iowa, and was ordained Elder in 1860, at Oskaloosa, by Bishop Janes.

His appointments have been as follows: 1855, Boone; 1856-7, Bloomfield Circuit; 1858, Unionville; 1859-60, Sugar Creek; 1861-2, Bellair; 1863, Attica; 1864-5, Drakeville; 1866, Melrose, which was his last work. His health failed in June following his appointment at Melrose, and he was compelled to resign his work. He then moved to Unionville, Iowa, where, after an illness of six months, he died in great peace.

As a preacher, Brother Boyles was eminently practical, seeking not his own, but his Father's glory. As a son in the Gospel, he was obedient to the voice of the Church, and without a murmur went to his appointments. He was at the Conference session two years ago at Knoxville. Last year, when the Conference met at Ottumwa, he was not able to leave his room. He was granted by that session of the Conference a Supernumerary relation.

It was the privilege of the preacher stationed at Unionville, often to be with him in his protracted illness; and, although his sufferings were great, he was never heard to utter one word of complaint, but would always say (when spoken to on the subject,) that he was willing to live or ready to die. As he neared the stream, he was not able to converse much with his friends. He said to his weeping wife, a few hours before he died, "don't weep for me—all is well," and without a struggle, passed away.

Thus died a kind husband and father, a good citizen, a consistent Christian, and a faithful Minister.

He leaves a wife and son, the latter aged 9 years; also, two married daughters, to mourn his loss.

The Church has lost a faithful servant; but God has re-called his own. He was buried with Masonic honors.

2. REV. MICHAEL HUSTON HARE was born December 23d, 1817, in Ross County, Ohio, and died on Monday, July 27th, A. D. 1868, in Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, aged 50 years, 7 months and 4 days.

At the age of fifteen he was converted at Rapid Forge, in the State of Ohio, and the next year connected himself with the Methodist Episcopal Church at the same place.

He was licensed to preach when 26 years of age, in 1843, at Petersburg, Ohio. At a Quarterly Conference of Highland Circuit, Ohio Conference, he was recommended as a suitable person to be received into the traveling connection, on July 19th, 1845. Upon that recommendation he was received on trial into the Iowa Conference, at Burlington, Friday, Sept. 5th, 1845, among a class of fourteen, of whom were Michael See, John Harris, Landon Taylor, and the late John Jay. On Tuesday, Sept. 2d, 1847, he was received into full connection at Mt. Pleasant, and was ordained Deacon by Bishop Waugh, the following Sunday. August 12th, 1849, he was ordained Elder, by Bishop Janes, at Ft. Madison.

He was Secretary of the Conference held at Burlington, in 1852, and reserve delegate to the General Conference of 1856, and a regular delegate to the General Conference of 1860.

At the Conference held at Mt. Pleasant in September, 1865, in the temporary absence of the Bishop, he was elected President of the Conference, by a very general vote.

On the organization of the Thirty-sixth Regiment of Iowa Infantry, he was elected, and appointed Chaplain, which relation he sustained till the close of the war, being the only Chaplain from Iowa, that served during the entire term for which the regiment was organized. He was mustered in, Nov. 17th, 1862, and honorably discharged in August, 1865; arriving at his home in Keosauqua, Sept. 10th, of that year. Brother Hare was on the field the entire day of the terrible attack of the Rebels at Helena, Arkansas, July, 4th, 1863, serving as aid to his Colonel, where his coolness and bravery won him the respect of all, as well for his soldierly, as for his ministerial qualities. On the 25th day of April, 1864, he was captured at Mark's Mills, Arkansas, and at seven o'clock that afternoon started southward, and without sleep, or a particle of rations, was marched fifty-two miles, after being robbed of pocket-book, watch, blanket, knife, horse, saddle and spurs, where rations, in the shape of corn in the ear, was served out to the prisoners. Arriving at Camp Tyler, after a most wearisome march, he remained near four months a prisoner, when he was liberated on parole. He never recovered from the effects of the terrible exposure and hardships of that march of five hundred miles, and his subsequent imprisonment. Pulmonary consumption there began its deadly work, and ultimately brought him, in the midst of his usefulness, to the grave.

During his Ministry, he was appointed to, and filled the following Charges: 1845, Farmington; 1846, White Breast Mission; 1847-8, New London; 1849, Keosauqua; 1850, Ft. Des Moines; 1851, Iowa City Mission; 1852-5, Keokuk District; 1856-7, Asbury Chapel, Mt. Pleasant; 1858, University Charge, Mt. Pleasant; 1859, Albia District, which he filled for nearly three years. In 1862 he was appointed Chaplain, and remained in the service nearly three years. In 1865 he was sent to Old Zion Station, Burlington; 1866, Mt. Pleasant Station; 1867, Keokuk District, where, "He ceased at once, to work, and live." Thus for a space of nearly twenty-three years he battled manfully for Christ and humanity, in Circuits, Districts, Stations, Missions, Camps and Prisons; and always with a noble and cheerful spirit. He died in great peace, and his body sleeps in the Cemetery at Mt. Pleasant, by the side of the remains of J. Q. Hammond, I. L. Stewart, William Simpson, and David Worthington—all noble and venerated leaders in the great army, who have fallen among us, and who are now wearing their crowns of glory. He leaves a widow and seven children to the care of Him, who is "a Father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows in his holy habitation."

The members of the Iowa Conference have been made to feel, by his departure, that a great and good man has fallen in our Israel.

XI. REPORTS.

I. REPORT ON FREEDMEN'S AID CAUSE.

The committee on the Freedmen's Aid Cause would present, as their report, the action of the last General Conference on that subject, and request that it be placed in the Conference Minutes, with the following resolution, viz:

Resolved, That we cheerfully adopt the recommendation of the General Conference, in regard to the Freedmen's Aid Society of the M. E. Church, and that we will present the claims of the Society to our people, and take a collection in its behalf, as early in the year as practicable.      G. W. FRIEND, Chairman.

L. T. ROWLEY, Secretary.

REPORT ON FREEDMEN.

Your Committee having considered the reports and paper from the Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, respectfully submit the following, namely :

The Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church was organized by a convention of ministers and laymen, members of our church, to advance the cause of education in the South, and especially to promote the mental and moral improvement of the freedmen. Our preachers and members cordially supported the undenominational Freedmen's Aid Commissions for years, but the time having come for a denominational movement, under Methodist control, they turned their support to this society. It has been sanctioned by nearly all of the annual conferences, and expressly approved by our Episcopal Board. It began its work in the South in November, 1866, and in eighteen months has received and expended above sixty thousand dollars. It employed fifty-two teachers during its first school year, and has increased the number to seventy-five, and about twelve thousand pupils have been enrolled in its schools. A wise policy has guided in the location of these schools, and the teachers have been selected with special reference to the moral as well as intellectual wants of the people among whom they labor. These teachers have heartily and effectively co-operated with our ministers in the Sabbath schools and societies, and thereby contributed to the success of our church in the South. The society has gained the confidence of the Government, and is now sharing with other associations in the aid furnished through the Freedmen's Bureau, to provide school houses, and transport teachers.

The work accomplished by this Society aids in restoring social order, and preparing the way for a free school system in the South, and is essential to the highest success of our Church there, and it should be continued and liberally supported while the demand for it exists. When the Southern States are fully reconstructed, and a wise common school system is established, and a returning prosperity shall enable the maintenance of free schools, the work of this Society may possibly be superseded. If so, its existence need only be temporary, and hence its permanent incorporation is not now required, but it should be properly recognized by the General Conference and receive its sanction and approval.

In view of the facts which have come before your committee, we recommend the adoption of the following, namely :

WHEREAS, The Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, organized to advance the cause of education in the South, and having the approval of the annual Conferences and the Board of Bishops, has been received with favor by our members, and has been a faithful almoner of their contributions, and is promoting the highest interests of the communities where it has located schools and maintained teachers, and has gained the confidence of the officers of the Freedmen's Bureau and of the loyal people, without distinction of color, and has effectually supplemented the work of the Missionary and Church Extension Societies, by meeting a pressing demand for which no other provision was made, and is contributing to the spread of religion, and especially to the signal progress of our Methodism in the South ;

AND, WHEREAS, Through the overthrow of slavery, God in his providence, has opened before our church, and extended an unparalleled field of usefulness in the South, to the cultivation of which we are impelled by the strongest convictions of duty, and by every humane, patriotic, and christian sentiment, and a field where the school and church must be planted together, and the minister and teacher must labor side by side : therefore,

Resolved, I. By the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, that we hereby recognize the Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and sanction its organization, and approve of its objects, and earnestly commend it to the liberal support of our people everywhere, and to the co-operation of our ministers and members in the South.

Resolved, 2. That we recommend our annual Conferences to place this Society on the list of annual collections, and urge our ministers to use their influence to secure to its treasury all the contributions of our people designed to promote the specific work in which it is engaged.                   THOMAS BOWMAN, Chairman.

IV. REPORT ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The committee to which was referred the subject of Sunday Schools, submit the following report:

We look upon the Sunday School as one of the principal arms of strength to the Church. From its ranks the militant hosts of our God are annually receiving the largest accessions of its most valuable cross-bearers and christian workers. In our own branch of the Church, the increase has been truly gratifying. There have been organized during the year 1,446 new schools, and there are 102,739 more scholars attending Sunday Schools than there were one year ago.

It behooves us to carefully consider what the Iowa Conference has done to accomplish these results. To the most casual observer, it is evident that hereafter the Sunday School is to occupy an increasingly important position in the Church. To its ranks we are to look for our educators and statesmen, as well as our ministers and missionaries. We therefore recommend the following resolutions for your adoption:

1. That G. W. Byrkit, J. B. Hill, S. H. Thomas, J. H. Hopkins, M. Carrier, J. Craig and G. W. Friend, be appointed a committee to provide for the holding of a Conference Sunday School Convention, at as early a day as possible, prepare a programme, and provide speakers, &c.

2. That we recommend to each District the holding of at least two Sabbath School Associations during the year, at which the interests of the Sunday Schools shall be carefully considered, and childrens' meetings held.

3. That we believe it to be the imperative duty of each pastor to attend Sunday School whenever possible, and to see to it that the disciplinary regulations providing for the organization of missionary societies in our Sunday Schools, and the introduction of our catechisms be carefully carried into effect.

WESLEY DENNETT, Chairman.

XII. REPORT ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH.

We view with grateful hearts the increasing power and influence of our beloved Methodism, both in this and other lands. And while there has been great improvement in the temporal and social relations of the Church, it is not, as some think, an evidence of declining spirituality and power. Never before were the doctrines of regeneration and christian perfection more clearly taught and urged upon our people than by the present ministry; and since the days of the Apostles, the Church has not possessed more of the permanent leaven of Christianity than at the present time. And, as a result, we are rising higher in christian knowledge, experience and zeal for good works; therefore—

Resolved, That we regard it as our special duty to keep before our people such encouragements as will fully develop christian character; and that we seek to make available all the talent and grace of our laity, to bring the influence of Christianity to bear upon those that neglect the House of God.

4. Each charge shall have credit in the Conference Minutes for its contribution to this cause in the column of missionary contributions.
5. The committee provided for in the third resolution, shall indicate what shall be done with whatever moneys remain after meeting the claims of the Conference Missionary.
6. That an opportunity be now given to those present to contribute to this cause; the contributions now made to be credited to the charge with which the giver may be connected.

XVI. REPORT OF THE VISITORS TO THE IOWA WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY—1868.

The Visiting Committee attended the late commencement exercises of the Iowa Wesleyan University, witnessed the examinations, sat with the Board of Trustees, and took part in their deliberations.

The examinations were very creditable. The students were not stuffed for the occasion. Every one appeared in the light of his attainments.

The faculty seem to have been diligent and efficient.

The commencement exercises were grand, largely attended, and enthusiastically enjoyed.

The grounds are being beautified by the growth of trees. The endowment fund is increasing. Confidence is being restored to wavering and faint-hearted friends. The Alumni of the institution already number one hundred, and its present senior class is the largest in its history.

As the result of our enquiries, we have unfaltering faith in the usefulness, permanency and power of our Institution, and believe it worthy of our love, our confidence, and our contributions.

JOSEPH GASSNER, Chairman.

E. H. WINANS, Secretary.

XVIII. REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

WHEREAS, We are as much as ever convinced of the great evil of intemperance, and believe that the buying, selling, or using intoxicating liquors as a beverage, is contrary to the laws of God and nature, and inconsistent with both the individual and social welfare, and contrary to the Rule of our Discipline, which requires all who desire to remain with us to do no harm and to avoid evil of every kind, and also with the rule forbidding the buying, selling, or drinking of spirituous liquors, except in cases of extreme necessity; therefore,

Resolved, That we will do all in our power to extirpate, this great evil, by preaching against the use of fermented and distilled liquors as a beverage, and by the private admonition of our members against the use of such drinks themselves, or the encouragement of their use, either in the family or social circles.

There being some difficulty in ascertaining the amounts paid by our people to so many county and township agents, we submit the following resolutions:

1. That the preachers be instructed to take the collections for the cause themselves, and forward the same direct to the Treasurer at New York, and certify the amount thus sent to the committee at the next Conference.

2. That when the collections are taken by the agents, the preachers be instructed to gather the amount of all the money paid by our people, from the township and county Bible Society records.

It having been ascertained that the income of the Institution, if properly managed, would, in all probability, meet its current expenses, the Board resolved to limit the expenditures and keep them within the actual income of the Institution for the coming year, and from present arrangements we feel justified in the belief that henceforth, our Institution will be kept free from embarrassment.

For the Faculty, see Catalogue.

The Trustees requested the appointment of two Agents to operate in behalf of the Institution, the coming year. They also appointed Rev'ds Holmes, Waring and Byrkitt, as a committee to draft a plan for the organization of an Educational Society, as a means of perfecting the work of endowment.

While our past success is a source of devout gratitude to God, yet we should not for one moment relax our efforts, but each member of this Conference, in his place, should feel it to be his duty to solicit funds and secure students for the Iowa Wesleyan University.

In conclusion, we congratulate the Conference in finding our University less embarrassed, better endowed, and therefore on a more solid basis than ever before.

Secretary of Board of Trustees of I. W. University.

NOTE.—Thirty charges, or over one-third of the whole number, furnished no detailed report this year. The Report has been put in the above, rather than in a tabular form, on account of the great saving, (fifty per cent.), in the cost of composition. It is recommended that the Preachers conform their reports to the above, for next year, classifying the amounts contributed; thereby saving also, the re-printing of the figures in each case.

In consideration of the trouble and labor involved in re-casting and re-writing the whole report, the Secretary hopes that slight errors (if any occur) will be overlooked. The names are believed, for the most part to be correct, though not a few have been guessed at. Please remember the suggestion to write all the names with ink in a PLAIN, BOLD HAND.

SECRETARY.
